WEATHER PROBABILITIES .- War Department, Office of the Chief Signal Officer, Washington D. C., April 2 1877-10:30 a. un. For the Middle States pertly cloudy weather and i ght rains near the coast during the day, followed during the afternoon or evening by cooler. Clearing weather, northwest winds and ising barometer.

INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE. -The commitice of the City Council appointed to investigat the charges of misconduct against Wm. B. Brown, Superintendent of Police, met in the chamber of the Board of Aidermen on Sat arday night, all the members being present, and a number of spectators outside the bar.

After reading the minutes of the last meeting, the Chairman asked Mr. Edmund Burke, who is Brown's couosel, and who was present, whether he had any statement to make for

Mr. Burke said that he was only present as . spectator. The report of the evidence of Messrs. O'Neal and Lambdin, given in the Gazette of Thursday last, was read to them, and they made with to the truth thereof before lustice Thompon, who was present for that purpose.

Mr. Lambdin said, in addition to his former vidence, that Brown had called upon him when mspended and asked him to draw up a petition to the Mayor to reisstate him, which he (izambdio) agreed to do, after Brown had given a pledge in the presence of Mr. G. W. Clifford to abstain from intoxicating liquors during his term of office.

In reply to a question from the Chairman as to whether Brown was now setting as Superintendent of Police, Mr. O'Neal said that Mr. flartle had brought him the pay roll for the jast week, and told him that Brown still laimed to be in charge of the business of the

The evidence of Messrs. Strauss, Brockett and Euron was then read and sworn to by them. Mr. M. B. Harlow, City Treasurer, having hosa sworn, testified that no money from the ale of offat had been returned by Brown, but Ir. Dillou, Captain of Chain Gang, and Mr. Brown, noting Superintendent of Police, had made returns to the extent of $6.40. Brown tal, however, told certain parties in his pres case to pay him (Harlow) for certain piles of manare when they were ready. The Superiotreet gang and paid them; he knew of no ema relement on the part of Brown. Brown was very often in his oflice, and had only found him trank on one or two occasions. He was not positive as to whether the amount returned was for manure or ice taken from the streets. in reply to a question by Mr. Hughes as to whether Brown had not given an order on his pay to Mr. Deran, he said that he had, but he Harlow) did not know what for.

The Chairman here said that he would have to rule these questions out unless the commit tee decided to take up the question of malfeas sace in office.

The room was then cleared of all save mem here of the committee, and after some time spent in secret session, the committee ad oursed.

It is understood that the committee declined to take up the charge of malfeasance, and will commond to the City Council the removal of thown for drunkenness and incompetency. The Mayor, secording to previous announce ment, took up the case of Brown at 11 o'clock this morning, and after examining the Com treets and other witnesses a ed the further hearing until to-morrow night.

PATAL ACCIDENT .- About half-past nine clock last night the two story brick house, on the north side of Cameron street, between Fayette and Payne, owned by P. H. Hooff, and occupied by Eliza Boswell, feel to the ground, the falling building and the cries of those inside, seen attracted a crowd, who went immediately to work to dig out the buried people. to complete was the wreck that the digging out was a slow process, and it was fully threequarters of an hour before all of the unfortunate people could be gotten out. This list of those ininged is as follows :-George Boswell, aged 16 years, killed; his body and head were terribly crushed and Mrs. Elica Boswell, severely hurt; her injuiles being mainly internal. Georgeanna Padgett, seriously cut on the head, arm and knee. Henry Boswell, slightly injured on shoulder and arm. Lewis and Benjamin Boswell, slightly injur ca on shoulder. The other three occupants of the house, James and John Boswell and a little girl, escaped unburt. The house has been in an unsafe condition for some time, the walls being badly sprung. tlenry Boswell states that his brother George aw a mouse on the wall, and called out to Lowis to kill it, whereupon the latter struck at the wall and it tumbled in on them.

An inquest was hold on the body of George Beswell, at Wheatley's undertaking establishment, at noon, by Dr. R. C. Powell, Coroner, and the jury, of which Geo. McBurney, esq. was foreman, returned a verdict that the de ceased "was crushed to death by the falling of the house in which he lived. The jury cannot place the responsibility for this fatal accident on any one individual or city official, but would tate that, in their opinion, some action should be taken by the City Council in regard to recity limits." Mrs. Boswell and Georgeanna Padgett are regarded as in a dangerous condi-

THE ABINGDON STOCK YARD.-It has always been a subject of surprise to many that the Virginia shore opposite Washington has not been utilized for many purposes outside-of mere agriculture. It only needs capital to develop the resources of the Virginia shore, and the success that will be to repair their shattered industries. sure to attend any merited scheme will have the effect of attracting both capital and labor. stock yard, which would furnish both Washington and Alexandria with meat. The present cattle yard is above Georgetown, and it is in a very unapproachable situation. There being no railroads near, the cattle have to be driven Georgetown side of the river to this side. Mr. Alex. Hunter is now building a stock yard on his Abingdon estate. The situation is perfect, being on the railroad and turnpike next to the Waterloo brick yards, and all cattle coming from the South can be delivered at the stock pens. This location will be of great convenience both to the cattle drovers and butchers. THE GILLERS' WAR .- It now turns out that the indictment of Captains Denty, Gregg and others in the United States Court, at Balti more, was made under the Civil Rights bill. The Gazette of that city says:-"They are charged with a conspiracy to deprive Thomas Downs, James A. Pascal, John H. Richardson and John Lamplough, of Delaware county, Peansylvania, of the equal protection of the laws | formation of an administration party in the of the United States and of Maryland, securing | South. This is indignantly decied by Govern their right to fish in the waters of the Potomae river, within the State of Maryland, and especally that portion lying within Charles county. The particular offense charged in the indictment is alleged to have occurred on the 28th or 20th of March, 1876, when the complainants, who are colored men, were driven away, and their seines, nets and other appliances of fish og were injured. The Potomac Fruit Growers' Association will meet in Washington to-morrow.

Steiner, R. Coleman, Joseph Padgett, s ... Robert Wade, H. Mitchell and H. Jacobs. returned with the following indictments: Consul, Tampico, $1,500. Lipman Gentzberger; grand larceny; John Williams, for enteriog in the night time a storehouse with intent to commit larceny; Wm. Fauntleroy alias Wm. Welch, for ma liciously wounding with intent to maim, dis figure, disable and kill; all true bills. The grand jury was then discharged.

THE CHURCHES YESTERDAY .- The churches yesterday were all largely attended. Rev. Mr. McMurran preached in the Union Presbyterian Church in the morning. Rev. Dr. Regester, P. E., preached in the M. E. Church South morning and night. There were no services at night in Christ Church, the Methodist Proafternoon the Sanday-school celebrations of St. | end.' Paul's and Grace churches were held, and at night that of the Union Presbyterian Church.

Large crowds attended on all three occasions

RELEASED.-The man arrested Saturday evening, as mentioned in the Gazette of that date, on suspicion of being the person who committed an outrage on a young girl in Washington, was released at a late hour the same night on the authority of a telegram from Baltimore, stating that the evidence was positive that the culprit's left arm was off, and not his right, as was the case with the prisoner. Notwithstanding this evidence the policemen and many others believe that the arrested man was the right one. His accounts of himself were very contradictory.

LEG HURT. - As the Potomae ferry steamer was about to leave Washington on her last trip Saturday evening, a stranger, in boarding her, sprained and bruised his leg severely. The leg, which had been previously broken, became very much swollen and very painful; and the man, on the arrival of the boat here, was conveyed to the Alexandria Infirmary, where he is now being taken care of.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Removal of the Troops from Colum-bin-Triumph of Hampton.

WASHINGTON, April 2 .- There was a meeting of the Cabinet to-day, at which, after further consideration of the political situation in South Carolina, Mr. McCrary, Secretary of War, was directed to prepare and forward an order to the commanding officer at Columbia, South Carolina, justructing him to transfer the U. S. troops stationed at the State House in Columbia to their barracks, outside the city. Thus the agony, as fir as South Carolina is concerned, is over, and Gov. Hampton is reeciving the congratulations of his numerous friends upon a result which restores to the people of that hitherto unfortunate State the burying in its ruins nine persons. The noise of control of their own affairs, wrested from the grasp of the adventurous carpet baggers, who have been preying upon her vitals since the

> Gov. Hampton will leave the city to-night for his home, carrying with him a lighter heart and the good wishes of the mass of the people of the country for a speedy return of happiness and prosperity to the old Palmetto State.

I-ATER.

WASHINGTON, April 2-3 p. m.-When Gov. Hampton was informed, this afternoon, in advance of official notification, that an order would issue for the removal of the troops from the State House, at Columbia, he expressed himself much gratified, but said it was no more than he expected from the principles announced in the inaugural of the President. He was somewhat interested to know whether the order was to take immediate effect, as he desired to be in Columbia where it was executed. However, as a precautionary measure, he would at once telegraph friends in Columbia bis earnest wish there should be no outward demonstrations, such as might disturb the public peace, and he felt satisfied that his advice would be respected, and on the withdrawal of moving or tearing down unsafe bouses in the the troops from the State House, he would direct that a guard of two unarmed men should tion, especially the former, who is quite an old be sent there to protect it from improper intrusion. He thought such a force amply suefficient for the purpose. He was also satisfied that there would be no disturbance whatever; and that the people throughout the State would take courage in the effort
